Message from the President

The Future

- Online teaching will become better understood and widespread across the globe
- Online examination and assessment will remain a challenge because of students authentication issues
- Blended Learning will become more popular
- A major change in the global higher education landscape will take pace. Universities depending on overseas students will suffer
- Students will seek better educational opportunities rather than searching for jobs, which could become scarce. In addition, the subject of entrepreneurship will become more important
- Stronger International Collaboration
- There will be a big increase in demand for medical and related courses
- New majors will start to emerge in the areas of pandemic management, e-commerce, and data mining techniques for health management, foresight, and scenario planning. In addition, more research centers on future studies will start to appear

Interview with Alumnus

Name:	Maryam Hamad AlBuainain
Workplace:	Unemployed
Academic Degree	Bachelor
Academic Major	Bachelor in Business Administration
Tell us about your Experience at ASU in terms of learning environment and teaching methods.	I had a good experience as I enjoyed the atmosphere. Also, I enjoyed the lectures that were taught by knowledgeable academic staff.
What did you enjoy the most about your experience at ASU?	The events held by ASU in campus.
Tell us a success story inspired by ASU.	I applied for a major I loved from a young age, and thanks to God and the grace of dear professors and doctors, I graduated from the Business Administration major with ease and a great deal of knowledge that I gained.
In your Opinion, What are the Improvement areas you would like to see at ASU in the future?	Include more English courses that could help students in their working life.
Final words	I extend my thanks and gratitude to everyone who helped me in this university before and after graduation, to all the professors, doctors, registration, library employees and administrative staff.

Quote of the Week

"The leader's attitude is like a thermostat for the place she works. If her attitude is good, the atmosphere is pleasant, and the environment is easy to work in. But if her attitude is bad, the temperature is insufferable."

—John C. Maxwell
