A weekly Diagram/Model from the President

| | Team Role | Contribution | Allowable Weaknesses |
|---------------|------------------------------|--|---|
| Thinking Role | Plant | Creative, imaginative, free-thinking. Generates ideas and solves difficult problems. | Ignores incidentals. Too preoccupied to communicate effectively. |
| Social Role | Resource Investigator | Outgoing, enthusiastic, communicative. Explores opportunities and develops contacts. | Over-optimistic. Loses interest once initial enthusiasm has passed. |
| Social Role | Co-ordinator | Mature, confident, identifies talent. Clarifies goals. Delegates effectively. | Can be seen as manipulative. Offloads own share of the work. |
| Action Role | Shaper | Challenging, dynamic, thrives on pressure. Has the drive and courage to overcome obstacles. | Prone to provocation. Offends peoples feelings. |
| Thinking Role | Monitor Evaluator | Sober, strategic and discerning. Sees all options and judges accurately. | Lacks drive and ability to inspire others. Can be overly critical. |
| Social Role | Teamworker | Co-operative, perceptive and diplomatic. Listens and averts friction. | Indecisive in crunch situations. Avoids confrontation. |
| Action Role | Implementer | Practical, reliable, efficient. Turns ideas into actions and organises work that needs to be done. | Somewhat inflexible. Slow to respond to new possibilities. |
| Action Role | Completer Finisher | Painstaking, conscientious, anxious. Searches out errors. Polishes and perfects. | Inclined to worry unduly. Reluctant to delegate. |
| Thinking Role | Specialist | Single-minded, self-starting, dedicated. Provides knowledge and skills in rare supply. | Contributes only on a narrow front. Dwells on technicalities. |

Belbin Model

In the digital era, team members who can lead and implement the digital transformation should be identified
